Dear Major General M. Ted Wong:

On behalf of the American Academy of Periodontology (AAP), I wanted to express my thanks and congratulations to the United States Army Dental Corps as it celebrates its Centennial! At this special time, we wish to acknowledge the rich tradition of the Army Dental Corps in education research and caring for those who serve and their families. The AAP looks forward to supporting periodontists serving in the Army Dental Corps.

Thank you for all you do on behalf of this country and for helping to keep us safe and free.

Sincerely,

Donald S. Clem, III, DDS
President, American Academy of Periodontology
